

VST

VERBAL SKILLS TEST

John Smith
(30/01/2017)

Verbal Skills Test

The Verbal Skills Test, or VST, is a skills assessment that measures an individual's ability to understand and interpret written information. The individual was required to read and interpret various texts and answer questions that was related to the text.

RESULT

1 – 3 Low	4 – 6 Effective	7 – 9 Enhanced
The candidate might find it very challenging interpreting and working with verbal information and instructions. The candidate might not always understand and think logically when working with written information.	The candidate should find it fairly easy interpreting and working with verbal information. The candidate should understand and think logically when working with written information.	The candidate should find it very easy interpreting and working with verbal information and instructions. The candidate should find it exceptionally easy to understand and think logically when working with written information.

Disclosure

Purpose: The purpose of this report is to indicate the test-taker's results on various skills, aptitude, potential and behavioural attributes. This report is for the attention of the manager who requested the assessment and remains the property of AssessmentHouse. This report may not be shared with any individual or company who is not trained in psychometric testing or have been authorised through informed consent by the test-taker and supervising psychologist.

Disclaimer: Since the report contains confidential information it needs to be dealt with accordingly. Consequently this report may not be handed over to the participant. It may also not be used as evidence in a disciplinary hearing. Should this report or the content of the report be handled or communicated incorrectly by any party within the company, AssessmentHouse cannot be held liable for any claims resulting from such action.